PRESS RELEASE – FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

The League of Women Voters of Umpqua Valley will be showing the one hour PBS documentary “U.S. Health Care: The Good News” at the Umpqua Business Center, 522 SE Washington Avenue, on Monday, November 17th at 5:30p.m. This free event is open to the public and light refreshments will be served. League members will facilitate a discussion about health care in Douglas County following the film.

The documentary originally aired in 2012 and highlights several communities around the country who have developed innovative strategies to provide excellent health care at reasonable costs. The documentary also highlights the work of the Dartmouth Institute For Health Policy and Clinical Practice.
